Rev. Dr. Seaton Against Emigration

PROGRESS MADE BY HIS RACE

He Says This Land is Their Home and They Will Remain.

REPLY TO BISHOP TURNER.

Rev. Dr. D. P. Seaton, pastor of Ebenezer A. M. E. Church of Georgetown, last night preached a sensational sermon in answer to Bishop H. M. Turner of the African M. E. Church. Bishop Turner advised the colored people to emigrate to Africa. Especial import is to be given to Dr. Seaton's reply, from the fact that he is looming up as a prospective bishop, and holds a very prominent place in the estimation of the colored Americans. Dr. Seaton said: "Bishop Turner has for years been exerting himself in the interest of our race. He has done noble work in uplifting us to a plane of prosperity. He has written an article advising an exodus of colored people. This sentiment has caused our worthy bishop to be handled without gloves by the leading spirits of his race. His sincerity has been questioned even by his admirers. He was, perhaps, drawn to his conclusion without giving prayerful consideration to such a rash step. It would be folly. If his people obeyed him, to his last breath, he could never gain his own pardon. We are adnexed gain his own pardon. We are adnoted the properties of the United States should not be president to the permitted to you in presidential to the permitted to you in presidential to the permitted to you in presidential to the president of the permitted to you in presidential to the permitted to you in president and the permitted to you in president and the permitted to you in president and the permitted to you in the per vised to emigrate, because, looking into the future, centuries shall come and pass before the black shall be accorded those rights which are his. The wrongs which we endure are a barbarous blight on civilization, and a curse on this cultured nation. But the remedy is in our hands. Victories are not won by running away. Retreat is a declaration of weakness. African Climate Against Them. The climate of Africa is against us. Man has a right to live in the country in which he desires to live. There the land is poisonous to us, and the air pregnant with death. Each emigrant would be a candidate for fever. Look at the death list of our missionaries. Government subsidies should ot tempt us to go. Bishop Turner declares that we are poor and ignorant, and that, though free, we have advanced but little in intelligence and wealth since we were re-leased from slavery. Such a statement from a leader of our race is monstrous. He has hurled this statement to the world and in the face of the facts. Our people have been demonstrating their capacity for higher functions from the morning of their freedom till today. Our schools, our church-es and our publications attest the truth of what I say. We are not a failure; we are a success. If we are a fizzle here, how can we manage a republic in Africa? Let our bishop turn his eyes to the days of his child-hood, and look for schools and great names of colored people. He would look almost in vain. In those dark days 39 per cent of the pulation in the states of North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Ala bama, and Louisiana were even ignorant true. We have some young people who can-not read, but the southern whites must ac-knowledge a similar deficiency, despite their knowledge a similar deficiency, despite their greater opportunities. The worthy bishop overestimates the number of blacks in the land, and underestimates the number who have made advancement. He did not consider sufficiently the subject upon which he essayed to write. At the close of the war not 1 per cent of our race could read God's word. By the census of 1889, 39 per cent of the people ten years old and over could read and write. That was a fair gain in nineteen years, and in the thirteen years which have passed since that census our In 1884, according to the Budget the col-ored churches had an enrolled member-ship of 1,688,591. We have over 7,000 pastors gain has been in greater ratio. and 16,000 local preachers and exhorters. In our schools we have over one million en-rolled pupils and 2,486 teachers. It is reasestimated that the value of the colored church property is $16,310,441, and the total value of the property possessed by the colored race of America is set down at $253,000,000. Having these facts before us, and remembering the deep and pitliess pov-erty and ignorance in which centuries of slavery left us, I ask any fair-minded man if we have not made commendable progress in thirty years?

Property Involved. What would become of our property should we emigrate? We could not realize 50 per cent on it. The Hebrews left Egypt on God's word that they would find a land of promise and of plenty. Is Bishop Turner inspired by God to tell us that Liberia is a land of promise and of plenty? The facts are against him. Where is our capital with which to begin life in a new country and under strange conditions? The antipathy between the whites and blacks is not in herent and natural. It is the result of cir-cumstances and of early training. If white parents would allow their children to associate more with black children this anantipathy would take a back seat. As the blacks increased in wealth, education and consequent power, this antipathy would fade away like the dew of morning. If this antipathy would fade away like the dew of morning. fade away like the dew of morning. If this antipathy were natural we would find it throughout the Caucasian race. Instead of this it is restricted to this country. The right is on our side and will be ultimately asserted. There was a time even in the justice loving north when we could not ride in common carriers with white folks, but this thing is changing now. It is only a question of a few years when the partition which ropes off the races down in Dixie will be knocked out. The black man has rights, and must be allowed to enjoy has rights, and must be allowed to enjoy them. God sees our affliction; He knows our sorrows, and He is coming down to deliver us. This is our home, and here we will dwell till Jesus takes us to Him. We will stay here and trust in the arm of the will stay here and trust in the arm of the living God. I already catch the whisper-ings of cheering words from the highest heaven. They are sweeter than honey to my soul. Hear them. Say ye to the rightshall cat the fruit of their doings. Woe to the wicked, it shall go ill with them for the reward of their hands shall be given them. We will stay, because we have a blood bought right here. Negro blood was shed for American independence, When rebel hands pulled down the star spangled banner the arm of the negro helped to hoist it again. We will stay here because we were brought here in chains, hunted by night and flogged by day and now that the God of battles has burst our bondage we of battles has burst our bondage we will show our bitterest foes that it is pos-sible for us to rise out of the dead ashes of slavery and become a prominent part of ome, and here we will stay. Cries of approval greeted Dr. Seaton's

Men Who Are Getting Knowledge in Local Institutions.

Societies Have Been Organized-Additional Students Enrolled-Subjects to Be Debated.

All the little preliminaries of organization have been disposed of and the work at the law schools of the city is well under way. Professors and students are attacking their tasks with a vim and earnestness which speak well for the interest of both. Any who have entered any one of the schools this year with the idea that they are there simply to spend a short time each evening listening to the lectures and thus to acquire a knowledge of the law by merely absorbing something of what they hear are being speedily disabused of this notion. A careful study of the lessons assigned is considered to be of the highest importance, and frequent quizzes bring out the points upon which further study is necessary. The reassembling of the schools is also signal for the reorganization of the various societies and class organizations which se cure to the students much pleasant and profitable intercourse with one another. Some of the classes have already completed their organization for the present year, while others have as yet taken only the preliminary steps. The debating society of Columbian Uni-versity Law School held the first meeting of the present term on Saturday evening October 14.

CHRISTIANS AND THE SALOONS. Rev. Dr. Davis Wants Church People to Make an Active Fight.

Rev. Dr. Davis, pastor of the Fifteenth Street M. E. Church, preached yesterday on the liquor traffic in its relation to law, custom and public opinion. He called Christians to account for their cowardliness in permitting the liquor traffic to be countenanced by law and public opinion, and gave the liquor people credit for fighting from the shoulder in defense of their law-protected business. He drew his text from second chapter of Matthew, and the 18th verse Rachel weeping for the destruction of her children by Herod." We had here in the city of Washington, he said, 1,070 places licensed for the sale of liquor and two special saloons over which the flag of the nation floated, and where, he said, Senators and Congressmen time and again became so drunk that they were a disgrace to themselves and to their country. He declared that he had seen this. These places were backed by law. That law was backed by public opinion, else it could not continue to be law. Herod, in the destruction of those little children, was also backed by law. The destruction of those children was in contioned that law. Unsupported power, it would have fallen. power, it would have fallen. With the proper education of public opinion, the infamy of the saloon would be as readily acknowledged as the infamy of Herod. The laws reflected the opinions of the law makers, and the opinions of the law makers were largely those entertained by their con-stituents. If the opinions of the constituents were not favorable to liquor license, their representatives would not dare to license it. The church people, he said, were the biggest cowards that God had created. They would stand around in their pews and meeting houses and whine and whimper against the curse of the saloon. It was a duty they owed to themselves and to their God to fight the public opinion and the law which permitted the curse. Preachers were very brave in talking in their pulpits, where there was nobody to contradict them. That would not do. They were unworthy the name of Christian if they did not take the field and fight reasonably and logically. The saloon was a curse, but talking about it in the church would not cure the evil. The liquor men laughed at them and would con-tinue to laugh at them so long as they pursued that method of warfare. They must be met at the ballot box. Here in the District, as they had no vote, they should organize and every preacher, Protestant and Catholic, should go to the President and make him feel that they were a power. He would heed them. The Commissioners, he said, hunted for garbage in the back yards and left these moral cesspools on every square and corner. The latter caused more pestilence; famine, suffering and miser;

Information reached the accounts divison, Indian office, Saturday, of the sudden and unexpected death of Miss Agnes J. Robinson, absent from that division on annual leave. She was stricken with paralsingle and the home of her brother David, in Menton, Minn., on Wednesday, October 18, 1893, and died there that night. Her remains will be taken for interment in the ACCOUNTANTS.

Double Facilities Recommended for Several Suburban Places.

ACTION OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

Brightwood, Brookland, Tenleytown

and Benning Are the Places. HIGH SCHOOLS ALSO WANTED

Petitions for additional school facilities n the suburbs of Washington have been made to the Commissioners for some time Recently these petitions were sent to the board of school trustees with instructions to submit a report thereon at an early date That report was received by the Commissioners today, and is as follows:

"The board of trustees have the honor to report that they find, upon a careful examination of the growth of the various suburban schools, that it is desirable to extend the school facilities by enlarging the school the school facilities by enlarging the school buildings in the following named places. These buildings should be increased so that their capacity will be double what it is at the delicit will amount to from $50,the present time: Brightwood, Brookland, Tenleytown, Benning (white).

"It is found, upon investigation, that the needs of these respective localities are in he order named. "in addition to the above, it is recom-mended that a four-room building be erected at Glesboro' to replace the present struc-ture, which is inadequate and unfit for use.

"The committee on normal and high schools, to whom was referred the subject of a new high school building, to be located in the fifth division, presented at the last meeting of the board, respectfully report, that in their opinion, upon the facts presented, there exists a real need of such a building, and which by the time the same could be completed will be a very urgent necessity. They therefore recommend factors. necessity. They therefore recommend fa-vorable and speedy action on the part of the board, and suggest that the Commission-ers be notified of this action, and requested to ask of Congress an appropriation for such building, to be included in the present and Western, and at the next annual meeting, in February, will enter into complete possession. In the last four weeks the stock has advanced from 140 to 160 on the final purchases in the open market of the stock that was deemed necessary to get absolute control. The Lackawanna stock owned by the late Charles Pratt, the deceased Long Island oil magnate, has already passed into the possession of President Maxwell and his ssociates, and they originally owned a considerable block of the stock purchased at the time of the McLeod deal a year and a half ago. With their recent purchases they thus control a very considerable portion of the capital stock, which is only $26,200,000. Besides this they have the support of some of the present directors of the company, sufficient to cause an entire change of management in February next. The program of the New Jersey Central people, according to a recognized authority in Philadelphia, is to still further strengthen their hold on the property by the distribution of a 100 per cent stock dividend as soon as they get into power. As the stock is held in small blocks the issue of so many additional shares would naturally increase the power of the large holders and in-trench them in control almost beyond pos-sibility of disturbance. The dividend can properly be made as a return to holders of net earnings that have been expended upon the property. Jersey Central's Position. Whether the Lackawanna stock that has been bought will be transferred to the New Jersey Central or will be held by President Maxwell and his friends and a traffic contract made between the two roads, has not been disclosed as yet, but the two properties will be most intimately connected. The New Jersey Central syndicate have long felt that their property was merely a terminus without a railroad, while merely a terminus without a railroad, while the Lackawanna was a railroad without a terminus, and that it would be to the advantage of both to become intimately connected. The New Jersey Central could then utilize its valuable terminals in Jersey City, which are now lying idle because of lack of business, while at the same time the Lackawanna would be able to become a great trunk line, which it cannot now because of lack of room at Hoboken to handle its traffic. handle its traffic.

Ever since Mr. Maxwell and his friends secured control of the New Jersey Central they have been diligently trying to form some connection that would give their road an important reliable business. The company owns magnificent terminals on New York bay, but that is about all. Jersey Central's Connections. Its line in southern New Jersey produces little profit, as its traffic is very light, while there is almost nothing except passenger business on the seventy-three miles between Jersey City and Phillipsburg. Its paying traffic is derived from its connections. The Reading joins it at Bound Brook and delivers over to it a very handsome business, but the Central only gets a haul of thirty-three miles on this traffic, and moreover, it is within the power of the Reading to turn it all over to the Lehigh Valley or the Pennsylvania. Its coal business all comes over the Lehigh and Susque-hanna railroad, which is owned by the Lehigh Navigation Company, and is leased by the Jersey at a rental of one-third of the gross receipts. This arrangement is a very profitable one to the Lehigh Naviga-tion, but the cost of operating the road is so great that the Central makes almost nothing out of it. Time and again succes-sive managements of the Central have endeavored to buy enough Lehigh Naviga-tion stock to enable them to have a new tion stock to enable them to have a new lease made on easier terms, but the stock is so widely distributed that they have never been able to buy more than an in-considerable proportion.

Will Secretary Carlisle's Prophecy Be Carried Out?-Expenditures Exceeding Receipts-Pension Payments.

The treasury "ten days'" statement isued Saturday shows that the gold reserve has decreased to $81,900,000, the lowest point it ever reached, and a loss for the month of October of $12,000,000. It is believed, however, that from now until the end of the month the gold reserve will climb up, as the currency now in process of redemption will become unlocked and available for use. The custom receipts at New York have been paid as follows: Gold coin, 42.5 per cent; silver coin, 1 per cent; gold certificates, 1 per cent; silver certificates, 25.4 per cent; United States notes, 19.9 per cent, and United States treasury notes, 11 per cent. The falling off of the revenues is clearly shown in the official statement that since the beginning of the present fiscal year the expenditures of the treasury have exceeded the receipts $22,000,000, which will be increased when October interest is taken out

000,000 to $60,000,000. Pension payments continue heavy, $8,642,-900 out of a total expenditure so far this month of $20,625,000 being on that account. It will require probably three more millions to meet the requirements for pensions this

NOMINATED BY INDEPENDENTS. Controller Myers of New York to Rus

-Protest Against Maynard. A mass meeting Friday night in Cooper Institute, in New York, put Theodore W. Myers in nomination for controller as an independent candidate. No one doubts Mr. Fitch's honesty or his ability, but the anti-Tammany sentiment is eager for a vent before the big mayoralty fight of next year, and finds the opportunity in the contest over the custodian of the city's money, an office hardly less in importance than the mayoralty. They Want to Fight Again. The fight which took place last week between Monk Robinson and Charlie Holcomb is to be fought over. Mr. Robinson, who was defeated, according to the decision of the referee,does not appear to have had enough, and wants to meet Mr. Holcomb again in a sixteen-foot fistic arena. Holcomb is willing, but says that the purse must be at least $100. He made $20 by the last finish fight and some extras, but he hardly made enough to pay his court-plaster bill. Although in the opinion of the patrons of knuckle sport Monk put up a first-class fight, it is said that Mr. Holcomb has said some evil things and made many disparag-ing remarks as to the slugging ability of Robinson. Monk has heard of these, Robinson. Monk has heard of these, and last night told a reporter for The Star that he would make Mr. Holcomb eat his words. Mutual friends say that the battle will be savage, and the outcome will be in doubt till the last round. Holcomb is confident of victory, and Monk is determined to do a tall piece of hitting. The mill will be tought in Maryland.
